

Stop the War in Sudan

Sudan's rival military and militia generals are fighting each for control of the country's government and resources. Civilian revolutionary groups who are leading the struggle for peace, social justice and democracy are calling for an immediate ceasefire, humanitarian aid, the demilitarisation of the cities and to hold the criminals who launched this conflict accountable.

Join the protests: Sat 22 April, 1.30pm - 5pm
(Sudanese Embassy, London) Sun 23 April, 1.30pm-
5pm (Outside 10 Downing Street)

Called by Sudanese Initiative Against War & Sudanese Revolutionary Movement – UK
